

Troop 947 clears brush from cemetery

Boy Scout Troop 947 recently cleared weeds, underbrush and unwanted trees from a section of an old pioneer cemetery located in Rentschler Forest Preserve on Ohio 4, near Butler Tech. Twenty-five scouts and adults braved the cold December morning for the Fort Hamilton Centennial Project, which is part of its commitment to celebrate the 100th anniversary of Scouting. Troop 947 is based out of Lord of Life Lutheran Church on Tylersville Road in West Chester Twp. Troop 947 is Nick DeWitt (in first row), Corey Turner, Patrick Bammerlin, Isaac Gruver, Zach Schroeder, Gabriel Lamar and Michael Catania; also Brian Wagner (in second row), Jay Scott, Dan Weiss (scout master), Doug Gruver, Simon Gehr, John Schroeder (assistant scout master), Duncan Lamar, Troy Turner, Devin Gruver, Jon Lamar, Pablo Alarcon, Jon Dewitt, Chuck Catania, John Nelson and Steve Turner (assistant scout master) Contributed photo
